A march to remember - Pécs Pride 2021

Maqsood Mariam 2021.09.21.

The 18th of September 2021 was a memorable day for the LGBTQ+ community in Hungary because this was the first time a freedom march for the community took place beyond Budapest. This was the first time in the history of Hungary that such an event took place in Pécs because previously; Budapest was the common locale for hosting similar events including the Budapest Pride.

The event was organised by the Diverse Youth Network (DYN) which is a team of enthusiastic people who are striving to build and strengthen relationships between diverse groups all over Europe. The event commemorates the liberation from prejudice coming from anti-LGBTQ+ community individuals thus the slogan that was chosen was, "Free Anywhere" (Bárhol Szabad).

Law enforcement bodies such as the police force closely monitored the event and around one thousand policemen were present there to ensure the safety of the participants and spectators. Many volunteers and official cameramen reported the event live on many social media platforms to highlight the program.

The participants were not only limited to locals but there were a great number of foreigners who carried flags of their own countries in support.

The rainbow flag which symbolises the broad spectrum of human sexuality and gender globally was the talk of the town and many supporters carried rainbow props which united them all for this movement. It was also reported that rainbow shoulder bags were also distributed and all of these made this event a successful venture by the LGBTQ+ group and a huge celebration for the community at the same time.
